

KEY FACTS: FIXED DEPOSIT PRODUCTS

Discover a great way to grow savings with Sharjah Islamic Bank's Deposit Products

It's the deposit that expects to earn more in the long run, giving customers the chance to plan for the future comfortably, conveniently and profitably.

Islamic structure of Sharjah Islamic Bank's Deposit Products:

Fixed Deposit products are based on the following Islamic concepts:

Mudaraba based Deposits; which is a profit-sharing partnership investment contract between the customer as Rubul Mal (Investors) and the bank as Mudarib, governed by the relevant AAOIFI Sharia Standards. Sharjah Islamic Bank being an Islamic Institution will utilize deposits funds in its Sharia compliant finance activities to generate its profit, such profit, after being ascertained will be shared between the Bank and the Investors at the pre-agreed upon percentages.

How it Works: We invest our customer's deposits in Bank's common investment pools in Shari'ah compliant finance activities where profits are determined and ascertained on monthly constructive evaluations, while profits are shared with and given to depositors on monthly, quarterly, semi-annually or yearly as per the investment tenor agreed upon between the bank and the investor.

Wakala Deposits; Highly competent management of Shari'ah compliant investments with healthy returns and flexible tenors define our Wakala Deposits. Under this product the bank receives investor's funds to be under the Wakala (Agency) Investment Contract governed by the relevant AAOIFI Sharia Standards.

How it Works: Wakala is an Agency Investment Contract, where the customer (Principal) appoints the bank as its agent to carry out investment activities as per an agreed plan. In Wakala Investment contracts the bank or 'wakil' is able to specify expected returns from the funds and offer that to the customers.
